Laser Awards Level 2 Award for Personal License Holders (RQF)

ID requirements:

- Valid photo ID (passport, driver’s license etc)

We require proof of your ID so we can verify that it is you that is taking the exam. The name on the ID must be the registered name of the person taking the exam.
If your name has changed since and is not the same of the name you have registered with, we may ask for further proof (for example: marriage certificate) otherwise your certificate will be printed as the name on the ID you have provided.

Exam rules and conditions:

- Your face must be clearly visible at all times.

- You must not in any way cover your eyes or mouth

- You must be alone in a well lit and quite room (be mindful of sunlight through windows and internal light directly onto the camera)

- You must stay looking at the screen for the duration of the exam, not looking away often or looking around the room

- Talking is not permitted during the exam

- Music or TV in the background is not permitted

- No eating, drinking, smoking, headphones, reading from a book, using paper notes or being on the phone/ other device..

These conditions are set in place so that we can accurately and fairly decide the outcome of your online invigilation, if these conditions are not met then your invigilation will not be passed. If the invigilator decides a serious breach of exam rules has taken place the learner will be no longer allowed to sit any exam offered by ourselves and/or any exam held by Laser Awards and its training partners.
